WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1907.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1892.

MAYSVILLE, KY., THURSDAY, JANUARY 15, 1903.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

THE BLUE AND THE GRAY.

By the flow of the inland river,
Where the blades of the grave-grass quiver,
Asleep are the ranks of the dead;
Under the sod and the dew,
Waiting the judgment day:
Under the one, the blue,
Under the other, the gray.

Those in the robes of glory,
Those in the gloom of defeat,
All with the battle-blood gory,
In the dusk of eternity meet;
Under the sod and the dew,
Waiting the judgment day:
Under the laurel, the blue,
Under the willow, the gray.

From the silence of sorrowful hours
The desolate mourners go,
Lovingly laden with flowers,
Alike for the friend and the foe;
Under the sod and the dew,
Waiting the judgment day:
Under the roses, the blue,
Under the lilies, the gray.

So with an equal splendor,
The morning sun-rays fall,
With a touch impartially tender,
On the blossoms blooming for all;
Under the sod and the dew,
Waiting the judgment day:
Brothered with gold, the blue,
Mellowed with gold, the gray.

So, when the summer callith
On forest and field of grain,
With an equal narrow falseth
The cooling drip of the rain;
Under the sod and the dew,
Waiting the judgment day:
Wet with the rain, the blue,
Wet with the rain, the gray.

Sadly, but not with upbraiding,
The generous dead was done,
In the storm of the years that are fading
No braver battle was won;
Under the sod and the dew,
Waiting the judgment day:
Under the blossoms, the blue,
Under the geraniums, the gray.

No more shall the war cry sere,
Or the wailing rivers be red;
They banish our anguish forever
When they laurel the graves of our dead;
Under the sod and the dew,
Waiting the judgment day:
Love and tears for the blue,
Tears and love for the gray.

Dress Stuffs A BARGAIN!

$2½ to $5 buys a dress pattern that a fortnight ago would have cost $5 to $10. Not to wool Dress Goods are reductions confined—silks have also been sheared of all profit. Never a better time to buy a dress, waist, or skirt. Perhaps some neighbor has availed of this sale—ask her opinion of our January bargains—we know her answer will bring you here.

FURS---One-Half!

The offer can be made in a dozen words. Every fur piece in the store at a reduction of one-half from the marked figures. Owing to the warm fall we marked furs early in December at the lowest prices ever known in the store's history—and from these lowest of low prices we again clip one-half.

Is only a bargain when it is a worth-while article at less than usual price. Last winter's coats would not be cheap to smart dressers at any price.

EVERY WRAP

In our stock is correctly fashioned and was made for the winter of 1902-3. We didn't carry one coat over from last year. We emphasize this point because it is difficult for anyone to grasp the extraordinary values we are giving in the coat department. You think old-fashioned garments are only possible at such prices. Don't waste time over that fallacy when a glance will instantly confirm every detail of our statement.

D. HUNT & SON.

"Cheapness"

Without worth is a delusion and a snare. Not a bit of doubt about that. It is one thing to sell good merchandise—Shoes—at low prices and quite another thing to sell cheap stuff. Kodol does for the stomach that which it is unable to do for itself, even when but slightly disordered or overloaded. Kodol supplies the natural juices of digestion and does the work of the stomach, relaxing the nervous tension, while the inflamed muscles of that organ are allowed to rest and heal. Find Gen. Lee.

On July 3, 1775, Gen. Washington assembled the colonial army at Cambridge, and there, under a large elm tree, assumed command of the American forces. The ceremonies were simple. The authority from congress was read, and then, drawing his sword, the man who was to lead the patriot army to ultimate success assumed formal command. With him at that time were Gen. Lee and Schuyler, who had made the journey from Philadelphia with him, and from which place he had set out without having taken time to visit his home and family at Mount Vernon.

Use
Bottled
Smoke
Why?

XXXX

It smokes the meat thoroughly, giving it a finer flavor and making it more firm than the old way. It protects it more surely from germs and insects.
It requires no smokehouse or fuel. No chance of starting a fire as in the old way. Can smoke 300 pounds of meat in an hour. Saves work, saves worry, saves time. Saves drinking—as high as 20% the old way. The weight saved on one or two hams will buy enough
of Chemwell's Liquid Meat Smoke to smoke 200 pounds of meat, and do it better than any other way. Let us tell you more about it.

PRICE 50c.
